

Centre Régional Léon Bérard

CENTRE
DE LUTTE
CONTRE LE CANCER

LEON BERARD

GET TRAINING AT THE LÉON BÉRARD CANCER CENTER

International healthcare professionals

WHY SHOULD YOU CHOOSE US?

The Léon Bérard Cancer Center, a referral and reference center for cancer care

A center 100% dedicated to oncology and internationally recognized for the treatment of all cancers, including the rarest ones, it offers cutting-edge, innovative treatments.

- Over 33,000 patients per year
- Over 1,700 professionals, including 200 doctors and 700 caregivers
- Over 500 researchers

International certifications and collaborations

- Organisation of European Cancer Institutes (OEI) Certification
- Head of European Excellence Network for solid rare tumours, gathering 60 European centers (EURACAN)
- Head of European Excellence Network for Pediatric Cancers (PAEDCAN)

An integrated, vibrant training facility

The training facility offers programs for a variety of learners to meet their individual needs.

- Courses given within our own institution
- Training provided by health care professionals who are internationally recognized for their expertise
- About thirty topics available
- More than 50 professionals of the Center involved in the training courses
- Training for all health professionals, including doctors, pharmacists, nurses, and electro-radiology technicians.

We are responsive to your needs and consider all requests for customized training in the areas of expertise of the Léon Bérard Cancer Center.

INTERNATIONALLY RENOWNED PROFESSIONALS

The professionals of Léon Bérard Cancer Center involved in the training courses are internationally recognized for their expertise in cancer care, each in their domain (medical oncology, radiotherapy, surgery,...).

Prof. Jean-Yves BLAY

- Executive Director of the Léon Bérard Cancer Center
- Medical oncologist, Professor at the Université Claude Bernard Lyon 1, specialist in sarcomas and rare solid tumours and cancer immunotherapy
- More than 400 published articles
- President of the EORTC from 2009 to 2012

Prof. Vincent GREGOIRE

- Director of the Radiotherapy Department, ENT cancer specialist
- Graduate of the Université Catholique de Louvain (Belgium), Fellowship at MD Anderson Cancer Center (USA)
- Author of more than 800 international presentations and seminars
 - Honorary Fellow du British Royal College of Radiology
- Chair of the International Commission on Radiation Units and Measurements (ICRU)

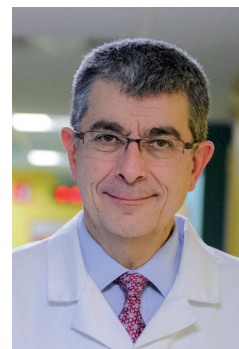

Prof. Isabelle RAY-COQUARD

- Medical oncologist, Professor at the Université Claude Bernard Lyon 1, specialist in gynaecological cancers, sarcomas, and GIST
- Chair of the rare cancer working group of the GCIG (Gynaecological Cancer InterGroup)
- More than 200 published articles and more than 200 contributions to collective works

Prof. Michel RIVOIRE

- University Professor of Cancerology
- Head of the Surgical Oncology Department
 - Director of Education at CLB
- Head of onco-hematology teaching at the Faculty of Medicine Lyon-Est - Université Lyon 1
 - Head of European IUD (Inter-University Diplomas) for Surgical Practices in Cancerology
 - Founder and Director of the Institute of Experimental Surgery, UMR 1032 Centre Léon Bérard - INSERM

LYON: AN ACCESSIBLE, WELCOMING CITY

An exceptional setting

Lyon is a metropolis on a human scale, with an exceptional history and heritage; an attractive city in which to organize your training sessions in a friendly and professional atmosphere.

Easy access

- 1 international airport, Lyon Saint-Exupéry (115 national and international connections)
- 3 railway stations connected to European capitals (Lyon Part-Dieu, Lyon Saint-Exupéry & Lyon Perrache)
- Fast and efficient transportation network making getting around the city easy.

Contact info

Anne Miermont

+33 (0)4 69 85 62 39

+33 (0)6 37 21 71 59

anne.miermont@lyon.unicancer.fr

Follow us :

www.centreleonberard.fr

